About the Master class

By prioritizing Employee Experience, organizations can transform their HR practices into strategic assets that drive business success. This seminar will equip HR professionals with the tools needed to create the working conditions and the environment for a more engaging, productive, and committed workforce. Embracing these strategies will not only enhance employee satisfaction but also position organizations for long-term growth and resilience in an ever-evolving landscape.

Aim of the Master class

This training program aims to identify some of the latest thinking and changes to the way HR can drive and effectively re-engineer the employee experience.

We will examine and compare what is presently being done and discover how professionals might adopt some new and innovative practices that will ease their workload, into their own companies.

We will also look at what principles and practices world class companies are using to manage challenging and demanding times, where recruiting and retaining the right employees is more crucial than ever.

Employee motivations and expectations have changed and HR can help guide the organization in addressing this shift in attitude.

Programme Leader

Sylvia Zachariah - World Class Consultant

A successful consultant and practitioner. Throughout her professional life, she gained practical and academic insights, which now conveys to audiences in a way that enthuses and empowers them to want to implement better approaches. Her Investors In People work provides direct and indirect consultancy support. She has worked with a wide range of organizations across all sectors, which has taught her a great deal about how to do things well and what excellence should look like.

In previous work she gained practical experience as Operations Manager, HR Manager and Director. She lived and worked in many countries including the USA / Singapore / India / Lebanon / Thailand and Spain, she has gained an excellent understanding of cultural differences and that "one size – does not fit all", which is invaluable when sharing knowledge and experience. She approaches her training and hands-on support in a pragmatic way – using academic knowledge, but contextualizing it in a practical way so that business and individuals can actually apply this knowledge to the benefit of their organization.
